Enter Kate in full dress followed by her mother.] Kate. - Oh, dear! Where is my glove buttoner? There never is anything in this house! Mother - Why don t you take care of your things? You drop em just where-ever you happen to be, and then there is a fuss. Kate - I don t suppose I look fit to be seen. Where is my fan? Mother - It is probably with the glove buttoner. Kate - I declare I won t go. It s more bother than it s worth. Mother - Stay at home, then, do. I am tired being dragged around every night. Your father ought to go with you once in a while. Kate - Father! There is no more style to him than there is to a stick. I m ashamed of him anyway. When he does go he pokes about, yawns all the evening and tells those disgusting stories about how we used...
