( Trim Line ) Line ) ( Trim the anthrax attack that closed the Hart Building. He has helped many of us grapple with the profound moral and spir-itual questions that underscore all questions of public policy. GILVIE One lesson Dr. O has always stressed is the impor-tance of keeping our priorities straight. In his words: Put God first, then family, then Nation, then career, and things will turn out as they are meant to. GILVIE Now Dr. O is living that lesson. He is putting his family ahead of his career and returning to California to be with and care for another treasured member of our Senate family, his wife Mary Jane. As much as we will miss him, we respect his decision greatly. Everyone who knows L O knows he has a spe-LOYD GILVIE cial place in his heart for St. Andrew. That seems fitting for two reasons. The first and most obvious reason is that St. Andrew is the patron saint of Scotland, and we all know how GILVIE proud Dr. O is of his familys...
