When the Lord thy God shall bring thee into the land whither thou goest to possess it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, . seven nations greater and mightier than thou, and when the Lord thy God shall deliver them before thee, thou shalt smite them, and utterly destroy them; thou shalt make no covenant with them, nor show mercy unto them. In reading the record of God s dealings with the nations, in connection with His people Israel, we are reminded of the opening words of Psalm ci.- I will sing of mercy and of judgment. We see the display of mercy to His people, in pursuance of His covenant with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and we see also the execution of judgment upon the nations, in consequence of their evil ways. In the former, we see divine sovereignty; in the latter, divine justice; in both, divine glory shines out. All the ways of God, whether in mercy or in judgment, speak His praise, and shall call forth the homage of His people...
