Not illustrated. 1899 Excerpt: . . . to thank the following gentlemen, Member of the Coloured Star Section and other, who have supplied the iotes upon which (in addition to my own), this Catalogue is based: --Messrs. T. VV. Backhouse, F. A Bellamy, C. Q. Brodie, G. T. Davis, W. Il. Robinson, H. M. Whitley, and W. Wickham. It may be useful for future work if I put on record (see next page) the blank form which was sent out to Members of the Section for use by them in recording their observations. It has been found necessary (through considerations of time and labour involved) to discard some observations sent in grouped in constellations instead of in order of R. A. , as requested on the Blank Form. I have not hitherto taken any steps to deal with coloured stars other than red or orange stars, but an interesting field of work is open in regard to blue and green stars. These are of course very much fewer in number; still, there are such, and they will repay study and deserve to be systematically catalogued; and I trust this may ere long be done under the auspices of a new Director. G. F. Chambers, Director of the Section. Brttisj) Astronomical Stasociatton COLOURED STAR SECTION, It will suffice if the time of observation is given in hours, and quarters, thus, 8 J. The state of the atmosphere should be noted as Very Clear, lairly Clear, Slightly Hazy, Very Hazy: Steady or Tremulous may be...
