Clingman, of North Carolina: Against the Revolutionary Movement of the Anti-Slavery Party Mr. President: It is my purpose to speak today of the condition of the country, as connected with agitation of the slavery question. I shall do ! this with perfect frankness, and with no reserve, except what parliamentary rules and Senatorial courtesies impose. By such a course only can the real nature of the impending evil be ascertained, and a remedy suggested. Having carefully studied the subject during the greater part of my political life, and from different points of view, I intend to express my opinions seriously, and as fully as the occasion seems to require. Before sneaking directly to the merits of the Subject, I shall devote a few minutes to a preliminary question. It has been contended that the Democratic party is responsible for the anti-slavery agitation of the North. A retrospect into the past will vindicate it most triumphantly from the charge. The course of the old Federal party, in the war of 1812, had brought it into discredit and disgrace with the American people. Its leaders, with a view of recovering the popular favor, and through it the control of the Government, seized upon the occasion of the application of Missouri for admission into the Union, and, by appealing to the anti-slavery feeling of the northern States, created a sectional party powerful enough to prevent, for a time, the admission of the State. During the struggle, a provision was adopted that slavery should never exist in the territory west of Missouri and north of the line of latitude of 36 30
