Had I been, it would have turned my car right into two lanes of morning traffic and I dont like to think of what the results might have been. This left me with an injury that exacerbated the condition in my lower back. This forced me to take sick time and vacation pay until it was depleted. Then I was put on long term disability (which is only good for a 2 year period do to my age and social security status) supplied by my place of employment. This disability will end on April 18th, 2004. Since that time, I have not been able to return to work and my health has been going downhill from there with several other problems. During my recovery period, I was told to take Neurontin 300mg. to control the severe pain I was in. This was much to strong for me and I asked the doctor to give me a much lower dose which he did (100mg 3 to 4 times a day). One capsule kept me out of commission for 24hours. The doctor insisted I increase the dosage in order for it to be therapeutic. I did increase the dose to 300 mg. the evening of July 6th, 2002. I was so anesthatized, I didnt know exactly where I was and thought I was in the middle of my bed when in fact, I was on the edge of my bed...
