Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Speech of Hon.: J. Collamer, of Vermont on the Kansas Question The Senate having under consideration the bill for the admission of Kansas into the Union as a State - Mr. Collamer said: Mr. President: I am fully aware that a large part of the members of the Senate, and probably a considerable number of the community, regard this as a very worn out and threadbare subject; and they desire to have even the Lecompton constitution adopted, so that it may be ended. They desire that they may get rid of being troubled with this matter; not to examine into it carefully and see what they should do, but to avoid the examination of it at all. I must acknowledge that I participate a little in that species of feeling myself. I am, I will not say exactly lazy, but naturally a little tired; and I do not like long, tedious investigations; but, after all, I do not feel disposed to shove them aside merely for my ease. I remember an instance of that kind in a Book which we all ought to know. A certain judge made a resolution that he would avenge a certain widow of her adversary, for a certain reason: that is, because by her much coming she troubled him. Some may say, we will end this subject of Kansas in this way, because, by its much coming here, it will trouble us. Who was that character? He was called the unjust judge, that neither feared God nor regarded man. A just judge should proceed to the examination of the subject, though by much coming it wearies him. Mr. President, there...
