DYNAMICS OF INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS

Mittal Publications, New Delhi, 2002. N.A. Book Condition: New. Xii+201pp International Relations, or the study of the ?behaviour of states,? is a new discipline that has become increasingly vital in this century. Professor Singh writes: ?Thinkers have been traditionally concerned mainly with state governments, with the relations between the individual and authority? Consequently, their theories ?have only limited application to the society of states.? An examination of international society as a whole, and for its institutions, is the principal concern...
