Power Outsourcing book is written by the former Harvard and UCLA Teaching Fellow and Sr. Lecturer. The author was chosen by Donald Trump himself to offer business coaching to Trumps VIP clients. More importantly, the author has practiced business and personal outsourcing for nearly a decade while teaching outsourcing at UCLA and other universities. Koz Khosravani has spent many years perfecting his outsourcing process and in fact spends most of his time travelling and vacationing while his work duties are being handled in India, Pakistan, Russia, Argentina, and of course, in many US states (some tasks are great for overseas and some better be handled locally. So, what can you learn here: It does not matter if its personal tasks at home (e. g. a virtual assistant taking care of all logistics and issues for your daughters upcoming birthday) versus professional tasks (e. g. marketing your law, tax or medical practice) or basically all tasks dealing with all your entrepreneurial ventures (if youre running your own business) -- basically have all your life tasks outsourced. So this is really a practical,...
