THE WORLD UNTIL YESTERDAY

Allen Lane. 1 Paperback(s), 2012. soft. Book Condition: New. Most of us take for granted such aspects of our society as telecommunication, literacy, even obesity. Yet for millions of years human society had none of these things, as the Pulitzer Prizewinning author of Guns, Germs, and Steel and Collapse reminds us here. In evolutionary terms, argues Jared Diamond, our bodies and social practices are often ill-suited to the modern world. Following his decades of fieldwork among isolated nonindustrial societies like...
