Brand New Book  Print on Demand .During a federal funding hiatus, or lapse in appropriations, the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) must be able to cease its government operations in an orderly fashion. Only those functions and activities that are exempt from the work restrictions specified in the Anti-Deficiency Act (ADA) may continue during a lapse in appropriations. The ADA codifies the Constitutional requirement that No Money shall be drawn from the Treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by Law. Federal officials are prohibited from entering into contracts, incurring obligations, or performing activities without having a current appropriation, unless authorized by law. The Act further restricts acceptance of voluntary services or personal services beyond authorized levels except for emergencies involving the safety of human life or the protection of property. As a result, only activities that qualify as exempt may continue to operate during a lapse in appropriations. In accordance with Section 124 of Office of Management and Budget (OMB) s 2014 Circular A- 11, Agency Operations in the Absence of Appropriations, the Department has developed the procedures outlined in this document as...
