Nag Publishers, Delhi, India, 1984. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Dust Jacket Condition: New. First Edition. Like motherland, the mother-tongue is the image of The Mother of the universe. No improvement of a nation can be rendered wholly perfect, unless the mother-tongue is improved. Nay, Religion of a nation cannot be fully developed prosperity cannot quickly crown a nation knowledge cannot fully manifest itself in the country, national sentiments cannot be preserved intact, the glory of native land cannot be magnified, man cannot attain the full stature of humanity, originality of a nation cannot be preserved, nor can he speedily attain temporal advancement, spiritual elevation as well as redemption, unless the mother tongue be preserved and improved. As the Sutras (aphorisms) of the Holy Scriptures are intimately connected with the intellect, so are the popular sayings (proverbs) of language closely associated with the mind. As many profound ideas relating to domain of intellect are expressed by the small aphorisms, so are the profound ideas relating to the domain of mind expressed by proverbs current in the language. This work 'Kahawat Ratnakar', first part of Panorama of Proverbs has been published with a view to serve the mother-tongue. Hindi. These sayings have been collected through the assistance of many savants. Sayings in Hindi (our mother-tongue) as well National language are the main factor in this work; and as matters of subsidiary importance sayings have likewise been culled from Sanskrit (the father-tongue) or rendered into Sanskrit in several instances. For the sake of convenience, sayings have also been culled from English or Urdu or translated in either of these languages. Care has been taken to glean, as far as possible, corresponding proverbs from the Arabic and Persian also. Printed Pages: 222.
